

COMPLIANCE WEEK

THE LEADING INFORMATION SERVICE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE, RISK, AND COMPLIANCE

New Promotions at Haskell & White

GRC Announcements | January 30, 2015

Haskell & White, an accounting, auditing and tax consulting firm, has promoted two individuals in its Audit and Business Advisory Services Department.

Among the new promotions, Luigi Ramirez is now in-charge associate. Ramirez joined the firm as a staff accountant after one year at a Big Four firm, and an internship with a national firm. As in-charge associate, his new responsibilities will include planning, supervising, and executing audits in the manufacturing, real estate, and nonprofit industries.

Haskell & White also promoted Tracy Cuculic McLaughlin to audit manager. McLaughlin has been with Haskell & White for four years, specializing in the real estate, service and distribution industries. In her new role, she will perform quarterly reviews and year-end audits for public and private companies as well as nonprofit organizations.